2023 RANGER NOW IN STOCK; 2022S STILL ON SALE

The carryover 2023 Ranger is now available at dealers nationwide. Note that selection may be very limited in some areas due to ongoing supply shortages.

The 2022 Ranger remains in decent supply for now.

In addition to the Ranger, Ford now offers a compact pickup called the Maverick, covered in a separate entry.

Current factory offers vary by region and are scheduled to end on APRIL 3, 2023, unless otherwise noted. The prices listed here are for California. This page is updated monthly, so stay tuned for the latest pricing and promotions.

FORD RANGER LEASE DEALS

LEASE FROM $349/MONTH

You can now lease a 2022 Ranger XL STX SuperCrew 4x2 from $349 for 36 months (10,500 miles a year) with $3,269 due at signing.

The effective monthly cost is $440, which falls short of a good value for this price class in our analysis.

There are no lease specials on 2023 Ranger yet. For now, recommend comparing lease quotes at a few local dealers.

FORD RANGER REBATE DEALS

NO CASH OFFERS

There are no cash incentives on the 2022 or 2023 Ranger, which isn't surprising since supplies are tight across the industry.

It could be many months before we see a rebate of any kind on the 2023s.

FORD RANGER FINANCE DEALS

RATES FROM 2.9% APR

Ford continues to offer special financing on the 2022 Ranger starting at 2.9% for 36 months.
